BRIBERY CHARGE Vanished Into Air Like an Empty Bubble

Series of Affidavits From All Concerned Showed Its Absolute Groundlessness—No Shadow of Suspicion Against N. E. Telephone Company—Facts in the Case Set Forth

At the hearing before the board of aldermen last night relative to the alleged bribery charges made by Alderman William J. Hayes, the New England Telephone & Telegraph company was completely exonerated. Affidavits signed and sworn to by Alderman and Mrs. Hayes, Jeremiah E. Murphy and Andrew A. Gray told the whole story and showed that the story of the alleged attempt to bribe was mere moonshine.

Alderman Hayes admitted that during the excitement attending the vote sustaining the mayor and the statement made by Alderman Dodge that he had been approached, but since the date above mentioned, he found that he had mistaken the facts and therefore he took the opportunity to clear the matter in the affidavit presented.

The affidavit of Mr. Murphy, who spoke to Mr. Hayes about the telephone situation, but who denied being an agent of the telephone company or offering any money, showed conclusively that Mr. Murphy went to see the alderman on another matter.

Mayor Casey presided over the meeting and all the members of the board of aldermen were present. Mr. Fred N. Wier, representing the N. E. T. & T. Co., James F. Owens, representing Alderman Hayes and John I. Hogan, representing Jeremiah E. Murphy, were present.

The attendance was very large, the chamber door and gallery being full, while outside the chamber doors crowds of people congregated.

THE HEARING.—About 8.45 o'clock, after considerable routine business had been transacted, Mayor Casey declared the hearing opened and said:

"The last meeting of the board of aldermen a resolution was given to Mr. Owens, who represents Alderman Hayes, to postpone the hearing until tonight. The board adjourned until tonight in order to give Mr. Owens a chance to make any statement which he wished relative to this matter. Therefore I will now declare the hearing opened and wish to ask if Mr. Owens wishes to make any statement."

Mr. James F. Owens, counsel for Alderman William J. Hayes, arose and said to the board: "I wish to state that Mr. Hayes is ready and willing to come forward and make a statement."

Understand that Mr. Hayes is not charged with any wrong act and ordinarily this would not be a proper place to thrash out a matter of this kind. Mr. Hayes feels that it is no more than proper, however, that any explanation he wishes to offer should be made at this time. I have explained such testimony as I have been offered to me by Mr. Hayes, and I have placed the matter in the form of an affidavit which is signed by Mr. Hayes and sworn to by him. Before saying any more I wish to read the affidavit."

MR. HAYES' AFFIDAVIT.—The affidavit submitted and sworn to by Alderman Hayes and read by Mr. Owens was as follows:

"I, William J. Hayes, of Lowell, in the county of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being duly sworn, on oath depose and say that I am an alderman in the city of Lowell for the year 1906, that I reside in Hayes avenue in Pawtucketville, in said Lowell, and that on Saturday, July 14, 1906, at about 5.30 p. m., I was at and about my house on said Hayes avenue when one Jeremiah E. Murphy, who resides on Hope street in said Pawtucketville, called upon me. He stated that he wished to see about a man named Groves, who had worked for the city of Lowell as a blacksmith and who had lost his job, and requested me to learn, if possible, where Groves had been dismissed, and if there was any way in which he could be reinstated. I told him I would do what I could. After the above conversation we talked about the telephone situation. Mr. Murphy said there was great opposition and considerable controversy about the new telephone company, that the people generally and the newspapers were opposed to it. He also stated that the mayor was opposed to it, and would veto it, and that he thought I had better refrain from voting further for the new company. He said it was a matter of surprise to the people that the six aldermen should continue to support the new company in the face of the strong opposition which was being made against it and there were rumors that some of the aldermen were interested, and that offers were being made as high as one thousand dollars, nothing further being said about money. He further stated that he understood the mayor was opposed to it and was going to veto the measure and suggested that it would be for my interest to vote for and support the old company. Further, he thought it would be for my interest to be on the popular side of the question. I said to Mr. Murphy that I had voted for the Merrimack Valley company and did not see any reason why I should change my vote.

After that I knew nothing about any money being offered by other telephone companies. I have had no further conversation with Mr. Murphy about telephone matters either before or since the date above mentioned.

Subsequently, in a conversation with several aldermen, Alderman Dodge inquired in which there was a discussion as to whether money was being offered for votes on the telephone question. I stated to the aldermen that I believed from a statement made to me, that I could get as much as one thousand dollars for my vote if I would vote in favor of the New England Telephone company. My only reason for saying this to the aldermen was the above conversation with Mr. Murphy. When Alderman Dodge made his statement in the board of aldermen, and charged that one thousand dollars had been offered to a certain alderman by a representative of the New England Telephone company, and I arose in my seat and said I was the man. I informed at that time only to say that I was the man to whom he referred and no more, and did not mean to say that I had actually been offered the thousand dollars or that any representative of the New England Telephone company had approached me with any such offer, and I am now free to say that no such offer or any offer of any consideration was ever made to me by any representative of the New England Telephone company.

Then personally appeared the above named William J. Hayes and, after having read over the above affidavit in my presence, made oath that the above is subscribed to by him in true belief.

JOSEPH E. LOUGHRAN.
Justice of the Peace.
After reading the affidavit Mr. Owens said: "I desire to say that some little time ago or rather earlier in the history of this city the New England Telephone & Telegraph Co. began the business of furnishing telephones to the people of this city. It is a public utility and of great use to the public generally. The New England Telephone & Telegraph Co. has continued as the sole distributors of the telephones in this community for years and until this year no attempt had been made to make a location here. This year the Merrimack Valley Independent Telephone Co. was organized and a franchise sought, presumably for the purpose of doing business in the community."

"At the time the New England Telephone & Telegraph Co. began operations here it was not a public utility business interest. They had some capital to start with and the condition attached to this year. Then the Merrimack Valley Independent Telephone Co. petitioned for a franchise. Immediately there was waged what might be termed a telephone war. The New England Telephone & Telegraph Co. believing that so far as it was possible for them to retain the privileges that they now have tried to give the community good telephone service. It is a question if they have failed to do so. The other telephone company had nothing to do with the same."

"A great deal of feeling was created between the two companies. A great many influences were started on both sides. The New England Telephone & Telegraph Co. used principally the newspapers. The Merrimack Valley Independent Telephone Co. for some reason did not use the newspapers. Therefore the New England company had a better opportunity to present its side than the new company did."

"Considerable feeling was created among the officials of the Merrimack Valley Independent Telephone Co., and I think that it was owing to this that the rumor of offering anything was started."

"I believe that some person was used to get the aldermen who originally voted for the resolutions to change certain statements and charges were made. After the meeting a charge was made by Alderman Dodge."

Mr. Owens then read the charge of Alderman Dodge relative to a number of the board being offered a bribe and knowledge that the man who had been approached.

Continuing Mr. Owens said: "The statement was made by Mr. Murphy."

After the conversation about Groves was ended something was said about the telephone controversy. I do not know who introduced the subject, but as I remember, we had some talk about it and I said to Alderman Hayes that I thought the public was against the new telephone company, and the mayor was also against it, and he generally got on the right of these matters, and he was foolish enough to intend to run for the alderman to continue supporting the new company, and that there was a good deal of feeling about it, and why the aldermen should continue to support this new company, when there was so much opposition to it on the part of the citizens. I advised him not to support the new company any longer, until he found out what public opinion was about it, and I had no further conversation with him about it, and I did not see him since. I did not offer him any money, consideration whatsoever, did not say to him that I came there representing any person or corporation whatsoever, and I had not been requested by anybody or by any corporation to see him. Nothing was said about money in any way, that I remember of, and my conversation with him was simply in the line of letting him know what the people were saying, and I was not asked by a desire on my part to let him understand conditions fully."

Murphy, came over to my house, and he and I had a conversation about taking a trip to Beverly beach, and we talked about it, and I told Mr. Murphy that I was going over to see Alderman Hayes in the afternoon. Mr. Jeremiah E. Murphy called at my house inquiring for Mr. Hayes. I told him that Mr. Hayes was not at home, and that I did not know where he was. He then said, "I am going over there and will show Mr. Murphy the way to the barn."

I had no further talk with Mr. Murphy and did not see him again.

At this point John I. Hogan, who represented Mr. Jeremiah E. Murphy, was given permission to speak and said:

"Mr. Mayor and gentlemen of the board of aldermen. It seems to me that there is no real direct charge made against Mr. Murphy that he made any attempt to bribe any member of this board of aldermen. In the affidavit which I have here it simply says that Mr. Murphy went to Mr. Hayes' house on Tolman avenue in said Lowell, and in my affidavit of the telephone matter, I went there on a friendly visit. The telephone question which has been the main topic of conversation for the past several months was brought up. Mr. Murphy is always to the topics of the day and spoke about it. He said there were certain rumors about it and offered to get something like $100."

"In order that we may not be in doubt as to the facts in connection with the case, and settling the matter, I appear here this evening and have an affidavit sworn to by Jeremiah E. Murphy and another by Andrew A. Gray who was with Mr. Murphy earlier in the evening."

AFFIDAVIT OF JEREMIAH MURPHY.
I, Jeremiah E. Murphy of Lowell, in the county of Middlesex and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being duly sworn on oath, do depose and say, that the circumstances and conversation between myself and Alderman Hayes, were as follows:

I live in Mr. Hope street in Pawtucketville, which is a short distance from where Alderman Hayes lives on Hayes avenue, and Mr. Andrew Gray lives on Tolman avenue, very near Hayes avenue, on the above date, at the time specified, I had occasion to see him in connection with the matter of a trip which he and I had arranged to take to Beverly beach, and I left my house and went to Mr. Gray's house and had a conversation with him and arranged to take the trip. I then went alone to Alderman Hayes' house, which is close by, to see him about James Groves, who is a friend of mine, and who had lost his job on the city, as blacksmith, as he had requested me to see if I could not have him reinstated. I told Alderman Hayes that Mr. Groves had lost his job, and that I had known him a great many years, and I hoped he would do what I requested him to get him back on the city rolls, and I told him that I would do what I could. After the above conversation we talked about the telephone situation. Mr. Murphy said there was great opposition and considerable controversy about the new telephone company, that the people generally and the newspapers were opposed to it. He also stated that the mayor was opposed to it, and would veto it, and that he thought I had better refrain from voting further for the new company. TALKED TOO LOUD

Deputy Welch Jarred Lawyer

Guillet

The most novel objection ever raised by a lawyer in the local police court was that of the deputy city clerk, Deputy Welch Jarred, who had been charged with the duty of arresting the defendant, John H. Guillet, on a charge of talking too loud.

Judge Pickman smiled at the extraordinary request and said: "I am afraid I cannot oblige an attorney to moderate his voice. I can control his voice, but I cannot control his words."

The husband of the defendant, who was sitting in the gallery, was asked to produce the evidence that his wife had been talking too loud.

measuring band on his hat stepped out of the darkness and leveling a revolver at his head asked "What's up?"

Grant immediately threw up his hands and the robber went through his pockets taking him of $25 in bills.

"There were people passing in Middlesex street at the time within calling, but they claim that the stranger threatened to shoot him if he opened his mouth and for that reason he remained silent."

His description of the highwayman was as follows: About 35 years of age, 5 feet 10 to 12 inches in height, dark complexion, dark curly hair, wearing band, dark clothes.

CITY HALL NOTES

A meeting of the committee on fire department has been called for tonight, the main reason for the meeting being to take some action relative to the establishment of a fire house in West Cambridge. There has been considerable agitation for a new fire house this year, one in the Oakland district and the other in the Central district, though the committee has not considered the one in the Oakland district being more necessary for one in Centralville than in any part of the city.

John Ward, a parole man from the state farm, was arrested yesterday by Officer John J. Crowley, while drunk and was sent to the station.

Between Armenians, Tartars, and Russians

ST. PETERSBURG, July 31.—The fierce war raging in the Caucasus between the Armenians, Tartars, and Russians, especially near the Persian frontier, is assuming threatening dimensions. There is considerable apprehension that the war may end in the outbreak of a civil war, for which a serious agitation has been in progress, both among the Shiite and Sunnite Tartars for a long time past.

RUSSIAN CABINET

Reorganization of It is Effected

ST. PETERSBURG, July 31.—The Associated Press was informed from a high source late this afternoon that Premier Stolypin considers the reorganization of the cabinet to be an accomplished fact. The negotiations are terminated and the premier entertains no doubt of the acquiescence of the emperor with the conditions to which he has agreed and an official announcement of the reorganization of the ministry may be made tonight or tomorrow.

CHURCHES ROBBED.

MOSCOW, July 31.—Three churches in this province were robbed during the night.

ANTI-FOREIGN SENTIMENT.

YEKATERINSLAV, Russia, July 31.—For the first time a distinct anti-foreign sentiment is manifest among the Russian workmen here. The recent attacks on the three foreign managers of works here were followed by an attempt yesterday of 3000 Russians employed at the Boleyn glass works at Tronstantinovka to expel about 50 foreigners, chiefly Armenians and engineers. They were only prevented from doing so by troops. It is feared that the attempt will be renewed. Many of the foreigners are afraid to go to their work.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 31.—6 p.m.—At a late hour this afternoon, Premier Stolypin issued a statement through the St. Petersburg news agency to the effect that the assignment of the unfinished portfolio has not as yet been entirely decided upon. He may postpone an announcement of the new cabinet for several days, but it is accepted as a fact that the cabinet has been virtually agreed upon and approved by the emperor.

NEWPORT, R. I., July 31.—A collision between the battleships Alabama and Illinois of the second division of the Atlantic battleship fleet in a thick fog last night was reported today by Rear Admiral Charles H. The other vessels, constituting the second division—the Indiana and Iowa, stood by, but their assistance was not needed. The report said that neither ship was injured below the water line.

SIGNS OF DISMAY

Seen in Promises of Reforms

ST. PETERSBURG, July 31.—The promises of liberal reforms with which Premier Stolypin is deluging the semi-official papers are accepted by the Reich today as evidence of dismay in upper government circles over the ominous but silent preparations in the opposition camp. The paper says: "Contentment has been produced by the fact that the government is already beginning to understand that its easy victory was more apparent than real."

"It would have been less frightened had it been compelled to immediately resort to machine guns and bayonets."

THE SAGE WILL

To be Contested Says Nephew

TROY, N. Y., July 31.—James H. Sage, a nephew of the late Russell Sage, is authority for the statement that the will of the dead millionaire will be contested. Today he made the following statement:

"I have made up my mind to get that which as a blood relative of Russell Sage I am entitled to, and if I don't get it, I will because there is no legal way of doing so. I am of the opinion that during Russell Sage's last few years there was undue influence brought to bear upon him, which caused him to leave the bulk of his fortune to his wife. If Russell Sage had any children and the money had been bequeathed to them, the heirs would have even thought of getting more than the 25 per cent. but as it is, I am not sure that I don't intend to be beaten out of it. I don't know what the other heirs intend doing, but I care. I understand, however, that Mr. Elizabeth G. of New York, who also contests the will, may care to do so. ## THE TRANSVAAL

Outline of the New Constitution

LONDON, July 31.—Winston Spencer Churchill, parliamentary secretary of the colonial office, outlined in the house of commons today the government's proposal regarding the constitution of the Transvaal. The outline principle, he said, would be not to make any difference between British and Boer, but to extend to the fullest privileges of British citizenship. All males 21 years old who had resided in the Transvaal for six months would be entitled to vote and elect members of parliament. The members of parliament would be elected for five years and will be paid for their services.

For the first parliament there will be a second chamber of fifteen members nominated by the crown. During the first session the members will be made for an elective general assembly. The constitution will contain a clause abolishing the Chinese labor ordinance after a reasonable time. The privilege of Chinese labor will cease entirely November 15.

BOYS DROWNED

WERE CLASPED IN EACH OTHER'S ARMS.

NEW YORK, July 31.—In trying to reach a barge anchored off Pier No. 24, foot of Franklin street, North river, yesterday afternoon, Jas. Doyle, aged 6, of No. 15 Hudson street, and Thos. Osborne, aged 11, of No. 67 Light street, fell into the water and were drowned.

The barge was in the rear of the West Shore shed, around which was a narrow string-pole a foot wide. The boys had been climbing on this board, and were edging toward the barge when Osborne slipped. In falling, he grabbed at the leg of his companion, and both fell into the water.

Neither could swim. They cried for help and clung to each other. A fireman, hearing the shouts, jumped from his truck, but when he reached the end of the pier the boys were not in sight.

Young Osborne's body was found by Roundman Edwards Esbright, of the Leonard street station. Doyle's body could not be found.

"INFAMOUS LIE"

Harry Thaw's Wife

Makes Statement

NEW YORK, July 31.—"I wish you would deny the stories sent out yesterday about the falling out between Harry's mother and myself," said Mrs. Harry K. Thaw, when she visited the family prison to see her husband today. "It is an infamous lie," she continued, "and it is the best of friends, both working for Harry's best interest."

Mrs. Thaw was asked about the report that Thaw and his mother had disagreed over the method of conducting his defense.

You may deny that too, if you want to," replied Mrs. Thaw. "It isn't true. As far as I know they are getting along famously."

Mrs. Harry K. Thaw was joined at the prison by Roger O'Mara, the Pittsburgh detective, and the two went together to visit Thaw in his cell.

Thaw, who was wearing a white shirt and dark trousers, was offered voluntarily to tell what they knew about the Thaw case were examined today by Assistant District Attorney Garvan.

One of them is said to be a nurse employed in a sanitarium in this city where Evelyn Nesbit was a patient and where both Harry K. Thaw and Stanford White are said to have visited her.

MAN SHOT DEAD

While Defending Property Against Burglars

MACHIAS, Me., July 31.—The body of Harry Konisky, 22 years, and single, was found today on the floor of his wholesale and retail fruit store on Main street, under mysterious circumstances.

A loaded and cocked revolver was found at his side and his body was found on the floor of his store, which was connected with an electric current. The legs and hands were slightly burned in places where the wire came in contact with the body.

The belief was expressed that Konisky was awakened by burglars and while defending his property was killed. The revolver had not been discharged.

TO BE HANGED

HANLEY WILL PAY DEATH PENALTY TOMORROW.

HALIFAX, N. S., July 31.—A scaffold was erected today upon which George Stanley is to be hanged tomorrow for the murder of Freeman Harvie, an aged farmer, who was killed in his house between Hartsville and Ellersburg, on Feb. 2 last. Stanley was arrested upon the following day, and was sentenced after his conviction on May 31. Harvie's headless body was found in the cellar of his house partly hidden beneath a heap of potatoes. The purpose of the crime is supposed to have been to gain possession of the Harvie farm and property.

HELD IN $10,000

MAN ACCUSED OF KILLING SISTER-IN-LAW.

BALTIMORE, July 31.—A detail of policemen was told yesterday to scour the country between Roland Park and York road in search of the body of Mrs. Annie Amelia, who disappeared on Tuesday last.

The suspicion that her brother-in-law, Vincent Udezka, murdered her and buried her body somewhere in that region was strengthened by the developments of yesterday to such an extent that Justice Loden decided to increase Udezka's bail to $10,000.

Udezka left his saloon with Mrs. Udezka on Tuesday last, their purpose being to collect mushrooms. That for a year Udezka has been threatening to kill Mrs. Udezka was asserted today by Mrs. Udezka and Piersen Marmer, both of whom have been intimate with the family of the accused and the missing woman for several years.

HE SCORES SULLIVAN

Bryan Demands the Illinois Man's Head

CHICAGO, Aug. 1. Judge Owen P. Thompson of Jacksonville, Ill., announced yesterday that in a letter dated July 17, William J. Bryan requested that Judge Thompson call upon Roger Sullivan, with a message from Mr. Bryan requesting that Mr. Sullivan, in the interest of harmony, at once resign as national committee man from Illinois.

Judge Thompson said he saw Mr. Sullivan yesterday and delivered Mr. Bryan's message.

Mr. Sullivan declined to resign as requested. Judge Thompson thereupon made public the following letter from Mr. Bryan:

"My Dear Judge: I am going to instruct you with a message to Roger Sullivan. If I were at home I would see him myself, but as I do not arrive until after your state convention, and as I think action ought to be taken at once, I will send the message by you. Please say to Mr. Sullivan that he has expressed a desire for harmony, and that I assume that he means to help the party to the extent of his ability, but there is but one way in which he can promote harmony and that is by resigning as national committee man. We are approaching another method campaign, and our party's chances depend upon its ability to convince the public of its good intentions.

"Mr. Sullivan's presence on the committee contradicts all we can say in the party's behalf. His corporate connections would harm the party far beyond his power to add the organization, but this could be left for some future convention to deal with if he actually the choice of the democrats of Illinois.

"The fact, however, that he holds his office by a fraud and against the express wishes of a majority of the delegates to the state convention makes it impossible for honest democrats to associate with him as a member of the committee. If we do not maintain the right of the majority to control party policy and select the party's representatives, for what can we contend?"

URGES IT AS ISSUE

"The fact that Mr. Sullivan has spoken kindly of me enables me to discuss the matter without risk of having my actions attributed to personal malice, but he ought to see that I would be unworthy of any one's confidence if I failed to protest against his continuance upon the committee, either to conciliate him or out of fear of his hostility.

"There is even in the party for all who honestly favor democracy principles, but the leadership must be in the hands of those who have the confidence of the party and whose presence will strengthen the party.

"If he will at once send his resignation to the chairman of the national committee and make the matter public, he will show his desire to help the party and will do much to restore harmony in the opinion of those who tell me that the party is in a state of confusion.

"If he refuses to resign and thus puts his ambition of his personal before the party's success, the matter to be decided from the committee is whether it ought to be made an issue in the state convention if necessary, for the democracy of Illinois cannot fight under such leadership and ought not to permit itself to be misrepresented on the national committee."

SULLIVAN'S REPLY

Mr. Sullivan, in reply to Mr. Bryan's letter, gave out the following statement last night:

"I have seen the letter purporting to have been written by Mr. Bryan, and I am prepared to accept it as genuine, although the character of the man whom Mr. Bryan appears to have chosen as his confidant is such that there might be serious doubts as to its authenticity. If the letter was written by Mr. Bryan, it furnishes proof that Mr. Bryan has allowed himself to be misled in what the democratic national convention of 1904 declared was a misrepresentation and a lie. It is proof that he is mistaken again, as he was on the free silver question, and that he is wrong again, as he was when he permitted himself to be misled by a man whose name he did in the Bennett will controversy.

"It is apparently Mr. Bryan's misfortune to jump to conclusions too readily, and to be led by men whose assumed friendship for honest republicanism is not sufficiently great to permit him to attempt to place him in an awkward and false light before the great majority of the democrats of Illinois. The men to whom I refer, Edward Fillmore Dunlap and Judge Owen P. Thompson, the leaders of the faction known as the 'Jacksonville cabal,' are men who have been twice publicly repudiated by the democrats of the state. The fact that my name happens to be Sullivan is by far a more potent reason to them for attempting to discredit me than any that they have or can urge. The real reasons for their opposition to me, I believe Mr. Bryan to be ignorant of.

"It is not the first time Mr. Bryan has been deceived by these men. He was misled into pleading their cause two years ago. He gave their claims the only merit they possessed by presenting them at St. Louis.

"What was the result? He pleaded for them before a subcommittee of the democratic national committee, and the committee decided against them. He renewed his efforts in their behalf before the democratic national committee, and again lost his case. A committee on credentials composed of democrats representing every state and territory in the union, next decided the issue when Mr. Bryan and champions to be elected and elected. Finally, the highest tribunal to which an appeal could be taken heard Mr. Bryan's plea for Dunlap and Thompson, and the result was as before.

Mr. Bryan says I told my seat in the democratic national committee by fraud. That seat came to me by virtue of a vote of 99 to 5 in my favor. It is one to which a democratic national convention declared I was entitled. If I told my seat by fraud, then Mr. Bryan must accuse Senator Thomas of South Carolina, Senator John S. Williams of Mississippi, Clark Howell of Georgia, the democratic leaders in the south, the majority of those in the east, the north and the west of complicity in a fraud. If I am guilty to associate with a man who has been twice publicly repudiated by the democrats, and surely Mr. Bryan cannot expect a nomination which must come, if it comes from the men who have decided that I was in and that Dunlap, Thompson and the Jacksonville Cabal were not only guilty, but had sold, slandered and libeled, not myself alone, but the majority of the delegates and the democratic state convention of 1904, and by virtue of whose vote I hold my office.

"Even if I were willing to resign, as requested, I could not do so under present conditions. If I did after the Chicago convention, I should be declaring not only that I was guilty of fraud, but that three-fourths of the democratic leaders in the country were equally guilty.

"A word as to my corporate connections, upon which Mr. Bryan seems to place so much importance. The only corporate connection which I am connected with is the Ogden Gas Company, in which I have the honor of being president. It came into existence because of a demand for cheap gas in this city. It gave to the people of the community for 30 cents what they were then paying $1.10 for.

"In conclusion, I would like to remind Mr. Bryan that the fundamental principle of democracy, which he speaks of, does not include recognition of political fraud. Democrats may have their leaders, but their leaders will never be selfish, obedient to the orders prompted by court favorites."

The labor question has been restricted to its output, but this is being rapidly overcome.

STRIKE AT KNITTING PLANT.

KENTONVILLE, Ind., Aug. 1.—Fifty-three girls employed in the factory of the Kentonville Manufacturing Co., manufacturers of gloves and mittens, have struck, pending the settlement of difficulties between them and the management. The cause of the trouble is that lately the management has instituted the system of changing the operators of each family glove. The girls rebelled at this and refused to work. The factory employs about 70 hands and the strike includes practically all of the working force, irrespective of the 11 inspectors. The trouble will probably be settled amicably within the next 48 hours.

TO MOVE WOOLEN MILL.

NEW ULM, Minn., Aug. 1.—For many years there has been a woolen mill on the Cottonwood river, about three miles from this city. It has had a small and not successful business, and a fairly good living. It was started by Bernard Marschner, who came to this place soon after the Indians destroyed his woolen mill near Meriden. The property has recently passed into the control of his son-in-law, who has been at work interesting capital with the result that the mill is being organized having a capital of $100,000, and the mill is to be moved into the city, where a large establishment will be erected and modern machinery installed.

"JIMMIE" DONAHUE

LAWRENCE POL. SUSPECTED OF BEING A STATE "COP."

There may have been a representative of the district attorney present at last night's meeting of the board of aldermen, but the man who many thought was the state police officer was none other than little "Jimmie" Donahue, a Lawrence newspaper man, and one time prominent in Lawrence politics. Mr. Donahue was interested in the matter for some out-of-town newspaper. Quite a few suspected him of being an officer, but "Jimmie" could prove an alibi if required.

OSTER BAY, Aug. 1.—Senator Charles Dick of Ohio and President Roosevelt went to Sagamore 1905 today and with President Roosevelt discussed the political situation in Ohio.

The simple fact that Senator Dick came away bearing the president's expressions of enthusiastic approval of his loyalty and success in the campaign is regarded as a political coup which will have decided weight in the republican situation in Ohio.

It has been said in Ohio that Senators Dick and Foraker did not stand for the Roosevelt administration and take a part in the fight to cause at least a degree of trouble. It has now been "thudded in the mud." If these words from Senator Dick have meaning:

"It is safe to make one prediction, that President Roosevelt's administration and the work of congress will receive since a well-deserved endorsement in the Ohio republican platform."

president with which the Ohio platform is to be featured there is to be a stand out declaration regarding the tariff. General Dick expressed himself freely on this point.

"It would be practically impossible for the sixth congress to revise the tariff," he remarked.

"Besides it would be decidedly bad political sense. There has never been an exception to the occurrence that when a political party in control of congress undertook to revise the tariff, preceding a national election it has failed to elect candidates to that campaign."

"The republican party of Ohio," he said, "stands now, as always for the protection of the American workman. This present tariff law, known as the Dingley law has produced in this country, unparalleled prosperity."

"However we must at the proper time recognize and deal with the situation that demands a revision. The republican policy has always been for prudent revision when needed, of tariff schedules as shall on account of changing conditions, sooner or later, need to be changed."

Senator Dick remarked in answer to a question that the federal investigation of the Standard Oil company would have no bad effect on the republican situation in the state.

FATHER KILLED

AFTER WARNING CHILD TO BE CAREFUL OF CARS.

BOSTON, Aug. 1.—Leaving his home at 6.45 yesterday morning, with the admonition to his children to keep away from the cars, and then five minutes later to be so badly mangled by a freight train that even his own family could not recognize him, was the sad fate of Patrick Morley, 49, of 535 East Second street, South Boston.

Morley had a wife and five children depending on him for support. Taking his 3-year-old son by the hand he started off to work at about 6.45. At the corner of A street and East Second he kissed the child goodbye, and started him on his way home, telling him to keep away from the cars.

But a few minutes later he stepped accidentally in the way of a freight train going over Congress street crossing.

He was tossed several feet ahead, and then struck again by the engine and run over.

He was so badly mangled that scores of his own neighbors who viewed the body could not recognize the remains.

FOR CONTEMPT

Union Man Arraigned on That Charge

BOSTON, Aug. 1.—Harry Noble, business agent of Painters' and Decorators' Union, 11, was tried for contempt of court by Judge Schofield in the superior court, yesterday. Edward C. Beck, a master painter, charged Noble with having induced one, and perhaps two, of his men to refrain from working for him at the American Hotel of the Massachusetts Hotelworks Company in Roxbury on July 11. This alleged action by Noble was declared to be a violation of a stipulation which was made by Noble and other labor union defendants in Beck's suit against them for an injunction which was brought last June.

Beck claimed that both union and non-union men and the union have been engaged in an attempt to injure his shop. He brought that bill to restrain the union defendants from interfering with him and his customers. The stipulation provided that the defendants should not do any act to induce or hinder Beck in carrying on his business. Beck claimed that two workmen whom Noble induced to quit the brewery job were Adolbert Mercer and Lawrence Holmes, both union painters.

Both they and Noble denied that he had added on doing anything to induce them to stop working. Holmes said that he quit on his own account. Noble said that he had not received any notice of the suit, though counsel had assumed to find him by the stipulation. The notice was served on another Noble.

Beck testified that the brewery work was a union job, calling for union conditions, and that it has been that up since July 11. The other jobs had not been interfered with, however, since the suit.

The defendant claims he did not violate the stipulation, even assuming it was binding upon him, and that the action of Mercer and Holmes in leaving the job was on their own account and to obedience with the rules of the union, which had been made long before this legal controversy arose.

Shipping Has Suffered Severely Along the Coast in the Frequent Storms

BOSTON, Aug. 1.—Unprecedented fog and unseasonable weather for the month of July has cost summer resort keepers up and down the New England coast many thousands of dollars, according to statistics completed today and has crippled the coastwise shipping business to a degree rarely before experienced during the summer months. Seashore inn keepers, cottage owners and shipmasters are hopeful of favorable weather and a rush of August business as the only means of recuperating their losses. Along the southern New England coast, older natives say that they do not remember such a July for 30 years, while a government weather official at a Maine point declares that records for the past 15 years fail to show such an amount of cold weather and fog as have prevailed for the past month.

In some instances large hotels have been obliged to close because of the season which usually is beginning to gather full headway by the middle of

RESCUED CHILDREN

From Drowning in Hale's Brook Last Evening

She Was Injured and Barely Able to Stand But Brought the Three Children Safely to the Bank—Many Neighbors Witnessed Heroic Deed

Suffering with a sprained ankle that prevented the use of both her feet and up to her neck in the murky waters of Hale's brook, Mrs. James Sheehan of 257 Thorndike street, yesterday made a most heroic rescue of her three children, Annie, aged 11, Catherine, aged 4, Gertrude, aged 7.

The back yard of the house in which the Sheehan family lives runs down to the banks of Hale's brook and in the mother's absence yesterday the four-year-old child while at play in the yard fell into the brook and went over her depth as the water at that point is over five feet deep. The cries of the little one attracted another member of the family, a seven-year-old girl, and she immediately jumped into the brook to assist her little sister and in an instant was over her depth as well.

The mother, who was in the house at the time, saw the second girl disappear and running out jumped into the water. On striking the bottom her ankle turned on a rock, spraining her member. Then using one foot, with the water up to her neck, she grasped the two children firmly and holding their heads above water, called for help. Her ten-year-old daughter hearing her cries ran to her assistance. In trying to reach out to her mother the third child lost her balance and also fell in, going over her depth. She grasped her mother by the arm and kept her head above the water while the mother painfully flung to the bank with the three little ones, while neighbors relieved her of her burden at the bank of the brook and assisted her into the house. The children were brought around in a short time while the woman suffered from exhaustion in addition to the injury to her ankle. Dr. D. A. O'Hearn was summoned and treated the sprain.

Mrs. Sheehan though confined to her bed is resting comfortably today, while the three children are all right after their experience.

During the Collision of Young Woman Worried To End the New Battleships Love Matters Bedford Strike

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Aug. 1.—Arbitration has again been sought as a means of ending the strike of master men and conductors on the New Bedford street railways. Today Mayor Thompson, at the request of a deputation from the strikers, arranged for a conference tomorrow morning between President Henry H. Cragg of the railway company and D. W. Mahon of the strikers' union. The move was somewhat unexpected in the city and the rest of the state, generally hopeful that the strike would be terminated. Delegates from the strikers, including the mayor, met at the office of the president of the union, today and informed him of the strike. The latter said that he would try to arrange a conference between the strikers and the company. The request was complied with by Mayor Thompson, who stated the case to President Cragg and once expressed his willingness to help the president of the International Brotherhood of Railway Men's union.

Cars were run as usual today in the city and were largely patronized by the public. There was no disorder. The main feature of interest in the city today was the announced intention of the strikers to restore the cars for work tomorrow and operating schedules. By early morning hours and at the factory closing time at night the thousands of operatives in the cotton mills and other factories were able to return to their homes.

An arrangement has been made whereby the strikers may be less inconvenienced by the passengers on the Old Colony line for passengers from Brockton and New Bedford. Before the strike the passengers returned to their homes by the cars, but today they are taken to the factory by the trolley cars.

TALKED TOO LOUD

Deputy Welch Jarred Lawyer Guillet

The most novel objection ever raised by a lawyer in the local police court came from Lawyer J. H. Guillet, this morning, when he asked the court to make Deputy Welch put the law pressure on his celebrated voice and conduct his cross-examination in a less vociferous manner.

Judge Pickman smiled at the extraordinary request and said: "I am afraid I cannot oblige an attorney by making his voice heard in the most moderate manner. I can only tell you what he says but am powerless as to how he says it."

The case was that of Minnie Higgins, an inmate charged with fraudulently converting mortgaged property and as in all cases the deputy was trying to show his job depended on his success. The deputy has a large full round voice not unpleasant to the ear but which when turned out full blast can readily be heard in the most remote corner of a room.

The husband of the woman under arrest was being cross-examined and the deputy turning on full steam said: "You've complained of your wife here before, haven't you?"

The husband was startled at the noise of the voice and replied meekly: "Yes."

"And you had her arrested, didn't you?" asked the deputy in a voice that shook the picture of Judge Crosby on the wall.

"I object, I object," cried Lawyer Guillet.

"What's the objection?" queried the court.

"Your honor, I think the court should have the deputy not ask questions in that manner, there's no need of it."

But the court didn't sustain the objection and the deputy continued to shake the ear drums of all the witnesses that came up before him.

"That question isn't competent," whispered Lawyer Guillet and Mr. Guillet promptly objected to it.

"Make him produce the record," said Lawyer Guillet.

"Yes," said the deputy, turning to the crowd who were having a lot of fun out of it, "how many counsel are there in this case?"

It was charged by the H. M. Kimpton Co., Insulation men of Boston that Mrs. Higgins, under the name of Minnie LaBelle, had bought a watch and chain valued at $100, paying two dollars down and four dollars afterward, but no drew her appeal and paid her fine of $50.

John Martin of Braintree was charged with assault and battery on William H. Lusk, also of that town, and the case was continued until tomorrow.

Peter A. Fay appeared for the complainant and J. J. Hennessy for the defendant.

This afternoon the Higgins woman withdrew her appeal and paid her fine of $50.

ABANDONED BOAT

TWO OCCUPANTS MANAGED TO GET ASHORE.

CHATHAM, Mass., Aug. 1.—After rowing about all night in search of a power boat which had whittled for assistance about 9 o'clock last evening, the tugboats and Naugatuck life-saving crews returned to shore today and found that the occupants of the motor boat left on Wednesday last for a cruise along the coast, including later to go to Gardner's island. They put in to Provincetown and sailed from that port yesterday. Losing their bearings in the dense fog, they had reached a point off Naugatuck Island when they decided to abandon the boat. After a time they determined to abandon their craft and embark in the life-boat. They succeeded in getting ashore without accident. No trace of the motor boat, which was a 20-footer with 15-horsepower engine and valued at $1000, has yet been found. Gardner and Lusk remained at the tugboat life-saving station today in the hope that their boat might be recovered.

She was, however, sinking badly, and it was thought wise to beach her on Warwick flats. The schooner has a cargo of 48,000 feet of lumber.

HE SCORES SULLIVAN

Bryan Demands the Illinois Man's Head

CHICAGO, Aug. 1. Judge Owen P. Thompson of Jacksonville, Ill., announced yesterday that in a letter dated July 27, William J. Bryan, requested that Judge Thompson call upon Roger Sullivan, with a message from Mr. Bryan requesting that Mr. Sullivan, in the interest of harmony, at once resign as national committee man from the party.

Judge Thompson says he saw Mr. Sullivan yesterday and delivered Mr. Bryan's message.

Mr. Sullivan declined to resign as requested. Judge Thompson thereupon made public the following letter from Mr. Bryan:

"My Dear Judge: I am going to instruct you with a message to Roger Sullivan. If I were at home I would see him myself, but as I do not arrive until after my state convention, and as I think action ought to be taken at once, I will send the message by you.

"Please say to Mr. Sullivan that he has expressed a desire for harmony and that I assume that he means to help the party to the extent of his ability, but there is but one way in which he can promote harmony and that is by resigning as national committee man. We are approaching another national campaign and our party's chances depend upon its ability to continue the public of its good intentions.

"Mr. Sullivan's presence on the committee contradicts all we can say in the party's behalf. His corporate connections would harm the party far beyond his power to aid the organization, but this could be left for some future convention to deal with if he were actually the choice of the democrats of Illinois.

"The fact, however, that he holds his office by a fraud and against the express wishes of a majority of the delegates to the state convention makes it impossible for honest democrats to associate with him as a member of the committee. If we do not maintain the right of the majority to control party policy and select the party's representatives, for what can we contend?"

URGES IT AS ISSUE.

"The fact that Mr. Sullivan has spoken kindly of me enables me to discuss the matter without risk of having my actions attributed to personal motives, but he ought to see that I would be unworthy of any one's confidence if I failed to protest against his continuance upon the committee, either to conciliate him or out of fear of his hostility.

"There is room in the party for all who honestly favor democratic principles, but the leadership must be in the hands of those who have the confidence of the party and whose prominence will strengthen the party.

"If he will at once send his resignation to the chairman of the national committee and make the matter public, he will show his desire to help the party and will do much to restore himself in the opinion of those who left outraged by the last state convention.

"If he refuses to resign and thus puts his ambition in his business before the party's success, the matter is left to the committee to decide. If I ought to be made a issue in the state convention if necessary, for the democracy of Illinois cannot fight under such leadership and ought not to permit itself to be misrepresented on the national committee."

Accompanying the letter to Judge Thompson was a message from Mr. Sullivan to the democrats of Illinois, enclosing the statements in the letter and urging that the party demand Mr. Sullivan's resignation. It concluded by saying that the democracy of Illinois must either repudiate Mr. Sullivan or abandon democratic principles.

SULLIVAN'S REPLY.

Mr. Sullivan, in reply to Mr. Bryan's letter, gave out the following statement last night:

"I have seen the letter purporting to have been written by Mr. Bryan, and I am prepared to accept it as genuine, although the character of the man whom Mr. Bryan appears to have chosen as his candidate is such that there might be serious doubts as to its authenticity. If the letter was written by Mr. Bryan, it furnishes proof that Mr. Bryan has allowed himself to persist in what the democratic national convention of 1904 declared was a misrepresentation and a lie. It is proof that he is mistaken again, as he was on the free silver question, and that he is wrong again, as he was when he permitted himself to cut so unbecomingly a figure, as he did in the Bennett bill controversy.

"It is apparently Mr. Bryan's misfortune to jump to conclusions too readily, and to be led by men whose assumed friendship for boyhood companionship is not sufficiently great to prohibit their attempting to place him in an awkward and false light before the great majority of the democrats of Illinois. The men to whom I refer, Millard Ellmore Dunlap, and Judge Owen P. Thompson, the leaders of the faction known as the 'Jacksonville cabal,' are men who have been twice utterly repudiated by the democrats of the state. The fact that my name happens to be Sullivan is by far a more potent reason to them for attempting to discredit me than any that they have or can urge. The real reasons for their opposition to me, I believe, Mr. Bryan to be ignorant of, and I believe the first time Mr. Bryan has been deceived by these men. He was invited into pleading their cause two years ago. He gave their claims

the only merit they possessed by presenting them at St. Louis.

"What was the result? He pleaded for them before a subcommittee of the democratic national committee, the committee decided against them. He renewed his efforts in their behalf before the democratic national committee, and again lost his case. A committee on credentials composed of democrats, representing every state and territory in the union, next declared the men whom Mr. Bryan now championed to be liars and scoundrels. Finally, the highest tribunal to which an appeal could be taken, heard Mr. Bryan's plea for Dunlap and Thompson, and the result was as before.

"Mr. Bryan says I hold my seat in the democratic national committee by fraud. That seat came to me by virtue of a vote of 49 to 7, in my favor. It is one to which a democratic national convention declared I was entitled. If I hold my seat by fraud, then Mr. Bryan must accuse Senator Tillman of South Carolina, Senator Chapman of Texas, Senator Ingalls of Idaho, John Shreve Williams of Mississippi, Clark Howell of Georgia, the democratic leaders in the solid south, the majority of those in the east, the north and the west, of compounding a felony. If I am unfit to associate with honest democrats, as Mr. Bryan says, then the men who stood by me are unworthy and surely Mr. Bryan cannot expect a nomination which must come if it comes from the men who decided that I was fit and that Dunlap, Thompson and the Jacksonville cabal were not only unfit, but had lied, slandered and killed, not myself alone, but the majority of the delegates who sat in the Springfield state convention of 1904, and by virtue of whose votes I hold my office.

"Even if I were willing to resign, as requested, I could not do so under present conditions. If I did after the changes which Mr. Bryan makes, I would be having not only that I was guilty of fraud, but that three-fourths of the democratic leaders in the country were equally guilty.

"A word as to my corporate connections, upon which Mr. Bryan seems to place so much importance. The only corporation with which I am connected is the Springfield Gas Company, in which I have the honor of being president. It came into existence because of a demand for cheaper gas in this city. It gave to the people of the community for 50 cents what they were then paying $1.10 for.

"In conclusion, I would like to remind Mr. Bryan that the 'fundamental principles of democracy' which he speaks of, do not include recognition of political corruption. Democrats may have their leaders, the leaders may have their followers, but their leaders will never be autocrats, and the followers will never be puppets, obedient to the orders prompted by court favorites."

President Goes Over
the Situation

MONTEREY, Mexico, Aug. 1.—Company Filippias, which is operating a large fiber product factory at Salinas, state of California, is about to double the capacity of the plant and make other improvements. The company has at present a working capital of $1,500, and operates 200 patented pieces of machinery over which it has exclusive control. It manufactures cord and ropes from kyle, pita, palma, banana and other fiber plants. The demand for the products has been very great.
The labor question has greatly restricted its output, but this is being rapidly overcome.

STRIKE AT KNITTING PLANT.

KENDALLVILLE, Ind., Aug. 1.—
Fifty-three girls employed in the factory of the Kendallville Manufacturing Co., manufacturers of gloves and mittens, have struck, pending the settlement of difficulties between them and the management. The cause of the trouble is that lately the management has insisted the system of charging to the operators the cost of inspection of the finished product. The inspectors are paid by piece work and the cost of the inspection of each faulty glove was charged to the operator doing the work. The girls rebelled at this and refused to work. The factory employs about 70 hands and the strike involves practically all of the working force.
Irrespective of the 11 inspectors. The trouble will probably be settled ambly within the next 48 hours.

NEW SHIRT COMPANY FORMED.

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 1.—J. D. Robinson, J. R. Mobley, J. H. McKellin, J. W. English, Sr.; J. W. English, Jr.; Preston Arkwright, C. A. Conklin, Gordon B. Kiser, James Goodland and Morris Brandon have formed a new enterprise, to be known as the Robinson Manufacturing Co., with a capital stock of $100,000, for the purpose of manufacturing shirts. The new enterprise will petition the superior court at once to be incorporated, with a capital stock of the sum as above, with privilege to increase it at their discretion to $250,000. Preliminary work of the selection of a site for the erection of a large factory will start at once; actual operations will be in order within 60 days. It is the purpose of the gentlemen to cater to both the wholesale and retail trade, and, with their working capacity of 300 people, will be able to supply the entire south.

BRAID COMPANY LEASES PLANT.

MERIDEN, Conn., Aug. 1.—The Meriden Braid Co., which was recently incorporated, with a capital stock of $50,000, and which will manufacture all kinds of silk, woollens and cotton braid, has leased a plant on Veteran street. The factory will be extensively remodeled. Manufacturing operations will begin with 75 machines, which have already been ordered, but this number will be increased at an early date.

TO MOVE WOOLLEN MILL.

NEW ULM, Minn., Aug. 1.—For many years there has been a woollen mill on the Cottonwood river, about three miles from this city. It has paid in a small way and brought the owners a fairly good living. It was started by Bernard Marschner, who came to this place soon after the Indians destroyed his woollen mill near Morton. The property has recently passed into the control of his son-in-law, who has been at work interesting capital, with the result that a company is being organized having a capital of $100,000, and the mill is to be moved into this city, where a large establishment will be erected and modern machinery installed.

BEING A STATE "COP."

There may have been a representalast night's meeting of the board of aldermen, but the man who many thought was the state police officer was none other than little "Jimmie" Donahue, a Lawrence newspaper man, and one time prominent in Lawrence politics. Mr. Donahue was interested in the matter for some out-of-town newspaper. Quite a few suspected him of being an officer, but "Jimmie" could prove an alibi if required.

JOHN J. HOGAN, Notary Public.

The French newspaper reporter who tried to bribe Mr. Rockefeller to give an interview with a check for $1000 is no judge of human nature as it appears in American millionaires. To get him talking an American reporter would have tried to touch him for $1000 for the overthrow of monopolies.

The world's political leader, who, because he cannot control the party has been associated with and who, for his own aggrandizement, seeks to form a new party, will never succeed, except in local instances. The voters of the country are too smart to be swayed for the advancement of individuals, however royal their promises. The people want reforms, and they have the common sense enough to know that reform can only come through one or other of the dominant parties. The labor leaders perceive that fact and, therefore, this year, throwing their weight into the democratic scale because they have been denied the legislation they have sought through the republican party for the past 10 years. They know that to organize a labor party would mean disaster, because it would antagonize other interests, which would unite against a radical labor program, but by throwing their weight with the minority party, who has a year been ready to concede all reasonable reforms, they not only may win but will make that party when it is obliged to enact such reasonable national and state legislation as a majority of the people approve. The logical reason why third parties, though in evidence for awhile, cannot endure is because the lesser of two great parties is certain to endorse any reform legislation that they will draw voters to their banner. Any reform that is demanded by a small minority of the people has always received consideration by the democratic party, and always will. The democratic party was created for reforms, and would cease to exist if it was to "stand pat" and "leave well enough alone," that being a distinctively republican attribute.

Bryan Demands the Illinois Man's Head

CHICAGO, Aug. 1. Judge Owen P. Thompson of Jacksonville, Ill., announced yesterday that in a letter dated July 11, William J. Bryan requested that Judge Thompson call upon Roger Sullivan, with a message from Mr. Bryan requesting that Mr. Sullivan, in the interest of harmony, at once resign as national committee man from Illinois.

Judge Thompson says he saw Mr. Sullivan yesterday and delivered Mr. Bryan's message. Mr. Sullivan, in reply, requested that Judge Thompson thereupon make public the following letter from Mr. Bryan:

"My Dear Judge: I am going to instruct you with a message to Roger Sullivan. If I were at home I would see him myself, but as I do not arrive until after your state convention, and as I think action ought to be taken at once, I will send the message by you. Please say to Mr. Sullivan that he has expressed a desire for harmony and that I assume that he means to help the party to the extent of his ability, but there is but one way in which he can promote harmony and that is by resigning as national committee man. We are approaching another national campaign and our party's chances depend upon its ability to convince the public of its good intentions."

"Mr. Sullivan's presence on the committee is a hindrance to the party's best interests. His resignation would help the party far beyond his power to aid the organization, but this could be left for some time to come to deal with if he were actually the choice of the democrats of Illinois."

"The fact, however, that he made his office by a fraud and created the express wishes of a majority of the delegates to the state convention makes it impossible for honest democrats to associate with him as a member of the committee. If we do not maintain the right of the majority to control party policy and select the party's representatives, for what can we contend?"

"I am, therefore, instructing you to tell Mr. Sullivan that I am going to resign as national committee man from Illinois."

"I am, therefore, instructing you to tell Mr. Sullivan that I am going to resign as national committee man from Illinois."

the only merit they possessed by presenting them at St. Louis.

"What was the result?" He pleaded for them a sub-committee of the democratic national committee, and the committee decided against them. He removed his efforts in their behalf before the democratic national committee, and again lost his case.

TEXTILE NOTES OHIO POLITICS

Interesting Items From Mill Centres

MONTEREY, Mexico, Aug. 1.—Cotton spinning filatures, which is operating a large fiber product factory at 2800 ft. altitude of Cochulla, is about to double the capacity of the plant and make other improvements. The company has at present a working capital of $1,500,000 and operates 200 patented pieces of machinery over which it has exclusive control. It manufactures wool and ropes from cotton, silk, rayon, hemp and other fiber plants. The demand for the products has been very great. The labor question has greatly restricted its output, but this is being rapidly overcome.

STRIKE AT KNITTING PLANT.

KENDALLVILLE, Ind., Aug. 1.—Fifty-three girls employed in the factory of the Kendallville Manufacturing Co., manufacturers of gloves and mittens, have struck, pending the settlement of difficulties between them and the management. The cause of the trouble is that lately the management has instituted the system of charging to the operators the cost of inspection of the finished product. The inspectors are paid by piece work and the cost of the inspection of each faulty glove was charged to the operator doing the work. The girls rebelled at this and refused to work. The factory employs about 70 hands and the strike included practically all of the working force. Irrespective of the 11 inspectors. The trouble will probably be settled amicably within the next 48 hours.

Kiser, James Goddard and Morris Brandon have formed a new enterprise, to be known as the Robinson Manufacturing Co., with a capital stock of $100,000, for the purpose of manufacturing shirts. The new enterprise will petition the superior court at once to be incorporated, with a capital stock of the sum as above, with privilege to increase it at their discretion to $250,000. Preliminary work of the selection of a site for the erection of a large factory will start at once; actual operations will be in order within 60 days. It is the purpose of the gentlemen to enter to both the wholesale and retail trade, and with their working capacity of 300 people, will be able to supply the entire south.

BRAID COMPANY LEASES PLANT.

MERIDEN, Conn., Aug. 1.—The Meriden Braid Co., which was recently incorporated, with a capital stock of $50,000, and which will manufacture all kinds of silk, woolsens and cotton braid, has leased a plant on Veterans street. The factory will be extensively remodeled. Manufacturing operations will begin with 75 machines, which have already been ordered, but this number will be increased at an early date.

TO MOVE WOOLEN MILL.

NEW HAMPSHIRE, Aug. 1.—For many years the town of Woodbury, on the Cottonwood river, had a wool mill in a small way and brought the owners a fairly good living. It was started by Bernard Marshner, who came to this place soon after the Indians destroyed his woolen mill near Concord. The property has recently passed into the control of his son-in-law, who has been at work interesting capital, with the result that a company is being organized having a capital of $100,000, and the mill is to be moved into the city, where a large establishment will be erected and modern machinery installed.

"JIMMIE" DONAHUE

LAWRENCE POL. SUSPECTED OF BEING A STATE "COY."

There may have been a representative of the district attorney present at last night's meeting of the board of aldermen, but the man who many thought was the state police officer was none other than little "Jimmie" Donahue, a Lawrence newspaper man, and one time prominent in Lawrence politics. Mr. Donahue was interested in the matter for some out-of-town newspaper. Quite a few suspected him of being an officer, but "Jimmie" could prove an alibi if required.

President Goes Over
the Situation

OYSTER BAY, Aug. 1.—Senator Charles Dick of Ohio and Elmer Fowler, secretary of the republican national committee, went to Sagamore Hill yesterday and with President Roosevelt, discussed the political situation in Ohio.

The simple fact that Senator Dick came away bearing the president's expressions of confidence in his political situation is regarded as a political success which will have decided weight in the republican situation in Ohio.

It has been said in Ohio that Senator Dick and Fowler did not stand for the Roosevelt administration and this report had led to cause, at least a degree, of trouble. It has now been "washed to the north" in these words from Senator Dick's mouth.

"It is safe to make one prediction, that President Roosevelt's administration and the work of congress will receive more and more enthusiastic endorsement in the republican platform."

Besides the strong endorsement of the platform with which the Ohio platform is to be featured there is to be a stand pat declaration regarding the tariff. General Dick expressed himself freely on this point.

"It would be practically impossible for the sixth congress to revise the tariff," he remarked.

"Besides it would be decidedly bad position to the occurrence that when a politic party in control of congress undertook to revise the tariff preceding a national election it has failed to elect candidates in that campaign."

"The republican party of Ohio," he said, "stands now, as always for the protection of the American workman."

The present tariff law, known as the Dingley law has produced in this country, unparalleled prosperity.

"However we must at the proper time recognize and deal with the sentiment that demands a revision. The republican policy has always been for prudent revision when needed, of such tariff schedules as shall on account of changing conditions, sooner or later, need to be changed."

Senator Dick remarked in answer to a question that the federal investigations of the Standard Oil company would have no had effect on the republican situation in the state.

Charles Thurston, aged 34 years, suffered from lacerated and confused wounds on his left elbow, caused by falling down stairs at his home, 3 Leverett street.

Henry Bailey, of 13 Kneeland street, was struck by a falling plank and was treated at the hospital for lacerations on the hip. The boy is 12 years old.

William Mitchell, living at 74 Olin street, had three stitches taken in his hip because of lacerations received by a flying shovel.

WENT ASHORE

AMERICAN WHALING SCHOONER MAY BE TOTAL LOSS.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., Aug. 1.—The American whaling schooner Era from New Bedford for Hudson bay went ashore at Miramichi Monday and was feared, would prove a total loss. The crew is safe.

The mail boat in from Labrador today reports that four fishing smacks were driven ashore during the recent gale which ravaged the coast July 26. All the crews escaped but most of the smacks together with the catches of fish were lost.

The storm did great damage to fishing gear along the coast and it is reported that six men were drowned from small boats in attempting to save some of the nets and tackle.

FATHER KILLED

AFTER WARNING CHILD TO BE CAREFUL OF CARS.

BOSTON, Aug. 1.—Leaving his home at 6:15 yesterday morning, with the intention to his children to keep away from the cars, and then five minutes later to be so badly mangled by a freight train that even his own family could not recognize him, was the sad fate of Patrick Morley, 49, of 535 East Second street, South Boston.

Morley had a wife and five children depending on him for support.

Taking his 3-year-old son by the hand he started off to work at about 6:45. At the corner of A street and East Second he kissed the child good-bye, and started him on his way home, telling him to keep away from the cars.

But a few minutes later he stepped accidentally in the way of a freight train going over Congress street crossing.

He was tossed several feet ahead, and then struck again by the engine and run over.

He was so badly mangled that scores of his own neighbors who viewed the body could not recognize the remains.

Union Man Arraigned
on That Charge

BOSTON, Aug. 1.—Harry Noble, business agent of Painters' and Decorators' Union, 11, was tried for contempt of court by Judge Scholfield in the superior court, yesterday. Edward C. Beck, a master painter, charged Noble with having induced one, and perhaps two, of his men to refrain from working for him at the American branch of the Massachusetts Brewery company in Roxbury on July 11. This alleged action by Noble was declared to be a violation of a stipulation which was filed by Noble and other labor union defendants in Beck's suit against them for an injunction which was brought last June.

Beck charged both union and non-union men, and the union have been engaged in a courtship to annul his shop. He brought that bill to restrain the union defendants from interfering with his business. The stipulation provided that the defendants should not do any act to interfere or hinder Beck in carrying on his business. Beck claims that two workmen whom Noble induced to quit the brewery job were Arthur Mercer and Lawrence Holmes, both union painters.

Both they and Noble denied that he had done anything to induce them to quit working for Holmes, and that he quit on his own account. Noble said that he had not received any notice of the suit, though counsel had assumed to bind him by the stipulation. The notice was served on another Noble.

Beck testified that the brewery work was a union job, calling for union conditions, and that it has been tied up since July 11. His other jobs had not been interfered with, however, since the suit.

The defendant claims he did not violate the stipulation even assuming it was binding upon him, and that the action of Mercer and Holmes in leaving the job was on their own account and in obedience with the rules of the union, which had been made long before this legal controversy arose.

CHELMSFORD

The Unitarian Sunday school held a delightful picnic at Willow Dale yesterday. A party of about 50 left town on a special car, and upon arrival at Lakeside took the boat across the pond to the Dale.

At noon the contents of the picnic baskets were shared together at the point, and for the children he cream was furnished. In the afternoon many patronized the rink at the Dale, while others went to Lakeside to try the roller coaster and for the dancing. The list of sports that took place in the forenoon, with the winning contestants, is as follows:

Boys' backward dash: Sidney Perham, first; Adelbert Adams, second; girls' 40-yard dash: Mildred Warren, first; Edith Adams, second; doughnut race: girls and boys: Paul Chandler, first; Elmer Hill, 2d, girls' potato race: Blanche Spalding, first; Leon Chandler, second; boys' running jump: Adelbert Adams, first; Elmer Hill, second; girls' and boys' tumbler race: Elmer Hill, first; Blanche Spalding, second; Dorothy Hall, third.

The special car left for home at 5:30 and was so crowded that many made the return trip by the regular cars. The successful arrangements were under the general direction of Sup't. W. H. Hall, assisted by Misses Rachel Marshall and Edith Perham, Richard Davis, William Adams and Herman H. Hill.
